Meeting of Shepherd Pomona Grange—Death of Mrs. Austin Williams.

(Alice P. Massey, correspondent.)
Shepherd Pomona Grange, No. 2, meets with the North Danville Grange, September 15. It is hoped the state master will be present, also Thomas Bradlee of the State Agricultural Extension service. The lecturer will also be prepared to report from the New England Lecturer's Conference which she attended.

Mrs. Austin Williams died Saturday morning, September 4, at eight o'clock at her home at Cole Corners, Ida Sanborn was born November 3, 1870, daughter and only child of Warren and Charlotte Sanborn. She died on the farm on which she was born and since lived. She married Austin Williams, two children being born to them, Wendell S. and Warren A. She has been sick all summer with a complication of diseases. She was a loving wife and mother and only those who have lost a wife and mother and daughter can sympathize with them in their sorrow. She leaves an aged mother beside her husband and sons, whom she has tenderly cared for until her sickness. The funeral was held at the Baptist church at North Danville Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. Burgin of Lyndon Center, pastor who married her, officiating. The bearers were four brothers, William, Bert, George and Fred Clifford, her cousins. In the morning in the cemetery beside her father, who died several years ago.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER

Death of Bessie Wheeler—A Pleasant Grange Picnic.

Miss Bessie Wheeler passed away at her home here, September 1, 1915, after an illness of a few weeks. She was taken sick with pneumonia when she was in Maine, when she was removed to her home here, and being unable to rally from this it later developed into tuberculosis. Miss Wheeler was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler and was born November 27, 1888. She had a jolly disposition and by her pleasant ways made a number of friends and for a number of years has made a home for her father, brother and sister, where she will be greatly missed. The funeral was held at the Methodist church, Friday at two o'clock, Rev. Mr. Eaton and Rev. Mr. Green officiated. Those who are left to mourn her loss are her father, George Wheeler, one sister, Mrs. Nellie Smith, of Lyndonville and two brothers, Harvey and Walter Wheeler, of this place. The flowers were many and beautiful, which showed the sympathy to the bereaved family.

Shepherd Pomona Grange held a most successful picnic August 28 in the maple grove on the farm owned by Arthur Young. The meeting was called to order at 11:00 a. m. There was a short literary program given by the children, consisting of a vocal solo by Grace Clement. Recitations by Iris Underwood, Mary Brooks, Beryl Young, Mildred Grady, Madeline Kennedy, Bernice Simpson and Avis Brooks, violin solo by Ralph Hovey. The nail driving contest for ladies was won by Mrs. Mary Leavemonth first, Mrs. Jennie Hovey second, Mrs. L. D. Clough third; the orange contest was won by Maurice Woodman; the cracker race was won by F. Grady; the shoe race for girls was won by Demis Wiley first, and Mildred Grady second; the tug-of-war between Enterprise Grange and Green Mountain Grange was won by Enterprise Grange. The baseball game between North Danville and Green Mountain Grange resulted in a victory for the latter, the score being 9 to 6. The next regular meeting will be held at North Danville September 15. It is hoped that the state master and Thomas Bradlee of the Agricultural Extension Service will be present. The lecturer will also be prepared to give a report of the New England Lecturer's conference at Durham, N. H., which she attended.

At the regular meeting of Green Mountain Grange, No. 1, which was held last Saturday evening the following visiting members were present: State lecturers, E. H. Hallett, and Mrs. Hallett, past master, F. B. Hooker, and Mrs. Hooker, Elsie G. Hallett, Ruth I. Colby and Charles Butler, Wide Awake Grange, No. 66, and Mrs. Jesse Gage, Somerville Grange, No. 350, of Somerville, Mass. Suggestions for the good of the order were responded to by State Lecturer Hallett, who spoke briefly of the Garden Class which he attended last Saturday at East Burke, stating that these girls which are practically the children's fairs were especially beneficial as they were the means of bringing the present generation into a closer touch with the agricultural attainments of our country, that he heartily approved of them and hoped that there would be more of the Granges that would take up this line of work another year. During his remarks which were very helpful and interesting, he said, "If the farmers would look into the matter and learn the proper way of grading and packing their farm produce for market, they might demand and expect to receive far better prices than they are getting now."

Other who responded were Past Master Hooker, Sisters Gage, Hallett and Hooker. Announcement was made that Shepherd Pomona Grange, No. 2, would hold its next meeting with North Danville Grange, No. 358, on Wednesday evening, September 15. The following program was then rendered after which a social hour was enjoyed by all: Song by Grange; reading, "The Way His Mother Did," Mrs. L. D. Clough; reading, "A Frustrated Romance," Wendell H. Hovey; reading, "Was Not Qualified," W. C. Hall; reading, "A June Wedding Incident," Augusta Phelps; roll call, tell something that you have seen or heard during the summer that has been of especial interest to you or else tell or read a good, short story, responded to by 20 of the brothers and sisters. The Rev. Mr. Eaton of Lyndonville, read a story related and the stories told or read were all good and if laughing is conducive of good health it ought to have been a very healthy as well as merry company who left the hall a little later. Closing song, by Grange. The next meeting to be held September 18 is "Neighbor's Night" and the program is to be furnished by the visiting Granges.
